Memorandum of Agreement between ROBERT ADAMS and ANDRE NORTON
Proprietors of the Anthology MAGIC IN ITHKAR and

Andre Norton, Proprietor of the work

FROG PRINCE.

Proprietor of the Work hereby licenses and grants to Robert Adams and Andre Norton, hereafter known as Editors, right and permission to include the story or work, hereafter known as The Work, in an anthology entitled MAGIC IN ITHKAR. Proprietor grants non-exclusive world anthology rights in all languages throughout the world. It is expressly understood that Editors will license overseas editions of the Anthology. PROPRIETOR retains all other rights in The Work, including right to grant non-exclusive anthology rights.

Editors will pay to Proprietor an advance of $ 277.50 against a pro-rata share of 50% of all royalties actually received by Editors from sales of this Anthology. Editors will, to the best of their abilities, annually report to contributors the status of this Anthology and tender any monies due. Editors may make more frequent reports and payments if warranted in their judgement. If royalties due Proprietor total less than Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) Editors may omit reports and payments until that sum or greater is due; and Proprietor may request and receive reports on the status of this Anthology at reasonable intervals by sending request and self-addressed stamped envelope to Editors.

It is understood that the Anthology will be represented by Cherry Weiner Literary Agency, and by her or Editors' overseas agents, and that customary agency fees will be deducted before payments are made to Editors.

Proprietor Warrants that he (she) is the owner of the rights hereby granted and that he is legally competent to sell, assign, and grant those rights, and to hold harmless the Editors, the Publishers, and any and all other publishing firms licensed by Editors to publish this Anthology from any and all disputes and judgements finally sustained arising from ownership of rights herein granted.

Editors will use best efforts to assure that no changes are made in The Work without the consent of Proprietor. It is understood that it is the responsibility of Proprietor to give Editors any required copyright notices and credit lines, and that in the absence of such The Work will be copyrighted in the name of the Proprietor in the year of first publication of the Anthology.

Previous publication history and copyright notice, if any, ARE/
ARE NOT (delete one) attached to this Memorandum.
